Epistle: A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians: (Eph. 4:1-6)

Brothers and Sisters, I plead with you, then, as a prisoner for the Lord, to live a life worthy of the calling you have received, with perfect humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another lovingly. Make every effort to preserve the unity which has the Spirit as its origin and peace as its binding force. There is but one body and one Spirit, just as there is but one hope given all of you by your call. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all, and works through all, and is in all.

Gospel: (Lk. 10: 25-37)

At that time a lawyer stood up to pose Jesus, this problem: "Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?" Jesus answered him: "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He replied: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." Jesus said, "You have answered correctly. Do this and you shall live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied: "There was a man going down from Jerusalem to Jericho who fell prey to robbers. They stripped him, beat him, and then went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down the same road; he saw him but continued on. Likewise, there was a Levite who came the same way; he saw him and went on. But a Samaritan who was journeying along came on him and was moved to pity at the sight. He approached him and dressed his wounds, pouring in oil and wine. He then hoisted him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, where he cared for him. The next day he took out two silver pieces and gave them to the innkeeper with the request: 'Look after him, and if there is any further expense, I will repay you on my way back.' "Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the man who fell in with the robbers?" The answer came, "The one who treated him with compassion." Jesus said to him, "Then go and do the same."

Апостол: До Ефесян послання Святого Апостола Павла читання: (Еф. 4, 1-6)

Браття і Сестри, благаю вас я, Господній в'язень, поводитися достойно покликання, яким вас візвано, в повноті покори й лагідности, з довготерпеливістю, терплячи один одного в любові, стараючися зберігати єдність духа зв'язком миру. Одне бо тіло, один дух, і в одній надії вашого покликання, яким ви були візвані. Один Господь, одна віра, одне хрещення. Один Бог і Отець усіх, що над усіма й через усіх і в усіх.

Євангеліє: (Лк. 10, 25-37)

У той час приступив до Ісуса один законовчитель, щоб його випробувати, та й каже: "Учителю, що мені робити, щоб вічне життя осягнути?" А Ісус мовив до нього: "В законі що написано? Як там читаєш?" Озвався той і каже: "Люби Господа, Бога твого, всім серцем твоїм, усією твоєю душею і всією силою твоєю і всією думкою твоєю; а ближнього твого, як себе самого." "Ти добре відповів", сказав (Ісус), "роби це й будеш жити." Та той, бажаючи себе самого виправдати, каже до Ісуса: "А хто мій ближній?" Мовив тоді Ісус, кажучи: "Один чоловік спускався з Єрусалиму до Єрихону й потрапив розбійникам, що його обдерли й побили тяжко та й пішли геть, зоставивши півмертвого. Випадком ішов якийсь священик тією дорогою; побачив він його й, збочивши, пройшов мимо. Так само й левіт прийшов на те місце, глянув на нього й пройшов мимо. Але один самарянин, що був у дорозі, зненацька надійшов (на нього) й, побачивши його, змилосердився. Він приступив до нього, перев'язав йому рани, полив їх оливою і вином; потім посадив його на власну скотину, привів до заїзду й доглянув за ним. На другий день він вийняв два динари, дав їх господареві й мовив: Доглядай за ним, і те, що витратиш на нього більше, я заплачу тобі, коли повернуся. Хто з оцих трьох, на твою думку, був ближнім тому, що потрапив розбійникам у руки?" Він відповів: "Той, хто вчинив над ним милосердя." Тоді Ісус сказав до нього: "Іди і ти роби так само."

HUMANITARIAN AID TO THE PEOPLE IN UKRAINE: The people of Ukraine need your help. As we mark the 12 years of the war in Ukraine, millions of the country's inhabitants are in dire straits. Constant bombardment, frigid temperatures, fluctuating power, lack of food, shelter and other basic necessities. As part of your Christian care, kindly consider making a donation towards providing emergency services and humanitarian and pastoral support to Ukrainians by offering care, medical supplies, food, clothing and shelter to displaced persons, the elderly and the sick, as well as educational programs and support to local priests. For example, for only $25, an emergency food package can provide much needed relief. $100 can buy four packages. Each package will feed 2 persons for 1 week. Donations may be made directly to Catholic Near East Welfare Association - Canada (cnewa.ca). For information on how your donation is making a difference, see Catholic Near East Welfare Association's 2022 Campaign Report: Ukraine Emergency Relief. May God bless you and your family for your generosity. Help Ukraine! Please do not give up and continue to pray! Stay informed! Donate. https://cnewa.org/ca/campaigns/ukraine/

In consideration of other Christians at the church-house of prayer to the Lord Our Almighty and Omnipresent God, please do not leave any items in the pews. Always love, pray and be respectful toward other people! Let each of us do our part to be true stewards of our parish church by helping to keep the church building safe and clean. Saint Philip's 40 days Fast (Advent) Christian Spiritual Journey is from November 15th to December 24th, 2026 A.D.

Christian prayers-petitions for Ukraine: «Ще молимось, щоб Господь Бог у своєму милосерді споглянув на весь наш український народ, у цей час війни захистив щитом своєї всемогутньої опіки наші міста і села, зцілив рани терплячих, подав свою вселаскаву допомогу всім потребуючим та дарував нам свій благословенний мир. Господи, вислухай і милостиво помилуй.

We also pray that the Lord God in His mercy will look upon our Ukrainian people, in this time of war and safeguard all cities and villages with His almighty protection, heal the wounds of those who suffer, grant His all-merciful help to all those in need and grant us His blessed peace. Lord, hear us and mercifully have mercy.

Ще молимось, щоб всемилостивий Господь укріпив силою своєю українських воїнів, які захищають Батьківщину від російського агресора. Благаємо, щоб вони були збережені від ворожих нападів і всякої смертоносної рани та здобули перемогу в боротьбі за волю і гідність нашого народу. Господи, вислухай і милостиво помилуй».

We also pray that our all-merciful Lord will strengthen those defending the freedom of Ukraine and convert the hearts and souls of the Russian aggressors. We pray that those defending the freedom of Ukraine will be protected from enemy attacks and any deadly wound and will win the fight for the freedom and dignity of our people. Lord, hear us and have mercy.

May our Lord grant our Eparchy not only a Bishop to govern, but a spiritual and pastoral Father who will love his people, serve with humility, teach with wisdom and lead souls to Christ, O Lord hear our prayer and have mercy!

We also pray for all the clergy, monastics, religiou and faithful of our Eparchy, that during this time of prayerful waiting, our Lord may strengthen us in faith, continue to unite us in love and grant us patience and trust in His Divine Providence, let us all say:

Нехай Господь дарує нашій єпархії не лише єпископа-управителя, а й духовного та пастирського отця, який любитиме свій народ, служитиме зі смиренням, навчатиме з мудрістю і вестиме душі до Христа. Господи, почуй молитву нашу і помилуй!

Молимося також за все духовенство, чернецтво та вірних нашої єпархії, щоб у цей час молитовного очікування Господь наш зміцнив нас у вірі, й надалі єднав нас у любові, а також дарував нам терпеливість і довіру до Його Божественного Провидіння — скажімо всі.

FAITHFUL GIVING … Please, remember that we never take a day off or a vacation from God, or from our obligation to attend Divine Liturgy on Sundays and Holy Days. When traveling, working, participating in different sport's tournaments, activities or studying, please, make sure you check out the service schedule for the area churches at our eparchial website: www.nweparchy.ca and attend the Divine Liturgy. Remember as well, that while parishioners may be away and on vacation, the parish-church is not. Expenses continue as they do throughout the year. Please, remain consistent in your gifts to parish. Your weekly Sunday offering is important to our financial well-being. If you are away, we appreciate it when you forward your "make-up" donations. The financial stability of the parish counts on regular Sunday contributions. One day every one of us will end his or her earthly journey. Every day we are all getting closer to that moment. No person will be able after physical death to use his or her earthly temporal treasures anymore. Always remember that, continue to be honest, loving, carrying, supportive, positive and generous! God bless all you! Be aware and remember that your help is always appreciated, and we still need more parishioners to volunteer! Thank you for your support and care at this uneasy time for us all. "Remember, O Lord, hose who bear fruit doing good works in Your holy churches and remembering the poor. Send down Your mercy upon all of us!" (A Prayer from the Divine Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom)

Christian Families in Canada

The theme for this year, "I am with you always" (Matthew 28:20), offers a profound reminder to the family, the domestic church (as described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church), that Christ accompanies us in every moment of life -in our joys, in our struggles, across generations, and through all of life's experiences. NFLW2026 invites families and communities across Canada to reflect on this enduring promise and to celebrate the gift of family life.

Молитва Митрополита Андрея Шептицького за українську родину

Боже великий, Боже отців наших! Дай нашому народові якнайбільше добрих, святих християнських родин. Дай нам таких батьків, які голосно й відверто признавалися б до божественної Твоєї Євангелії і до Твоєї служби. Дай нам батьків, які для своїх дітей були б прикладом християнського життя, правдивими опікунами та добрими провідниками в житті. Дай нам таких матерів, що вміли б добре, по-християнськи виховувати своїх дітей, а для своїх чоловіків були б поміччю, потіхою та доброю радою. Дай нам таких дітей, які були б потіхою та славою батьків і красою свого народу. Благослови, всемогутній Боже, український нарід. Даруй йому ласку вірно Тобі служити і доступити колись вічної нагороди в небі, бо Тобі, Боже, у Святій Трійці єдиний, Отче, Сину і Духу Святий, належить вся слава, честь і поклін навіки вічні. Амінь.

Prayer of Metropolitan Andrey Sheptytskyi for the Ukrainian family

Great God, God of our fathers! Give our people as many good, holy Christian families as possible. Give us such parents who would loudly and openly confess to Your divine Gospel and to Your service. Give us parents who would be an example of Christian life for their children, true guardians and good guides in life. Give us such mothers who would be able to raise their children well, in a Christian way, and would be help, comfort and good advice for their husbands. Give us such children who would be the joy and glory of their parents and the beauty of their people. Bless, almighty God, the Ukrainian nation. Give him the grace to serve You faithfully and to give him eternal rewards in heaven, because to You, God, in the Holy Trinity, the only one, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, belongs all the glory, honour and worship forever and ever. Amen.

HOLODOMOR AWARENESS WEEK: NOVEMBER 15th – 22nd, 2026 A.D. Commemoration of the 93rd Anniversary of the Holodomor Famine- Genocide of 1932-1933 A.D. International Holodomor Memorial Day is on Saturday, November 21st at 7:32 p.m. (19:32) local time we are invited to pause for a moment of silence and honour the memory of the victims by lighting a candle of remembrance in our homes. In our parishes, after the Divine Liturgies, on Sunday, November 23rd we will celebrate the Panakhyda for the victims of this genocide.

INFO: Ukrainians were starved to death by the Soviet government and regime led by USSR comrade Joseph Stalin. All grain and food were forcibly seized, and the boarders were shut. In little more that a year, a quarter of the population perished. This crime of genocide by starvation is a historical fact and known as the Holodomor. In 2008, the Government of Canada recognized the Holodomor as an act of Genocide against the Ukrainian people and established the fourth Saturday of November as the National Ukrainian Famine and Genocide (Holodomor) Memorial Day. The provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec have adopted similar legislation. British Columbia officially has recognized the annual day of remembrance for Ukraine's Holodomor on Thursday, October 31, 2019 A.D.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ!

Glory to Jesus Christ!

The Gospel words that we have just heard proclaim Christ, God incarnate, who hastens to meet the human person (Luke 8:41–56). The Gospel passage can be divided, broadly speaking, into three parts: the plea of a father named Jairus, the leader of the synagogue, and Jesus' immediate response; the healing of a woman who had suffered from haemorrhages for twelve years; and the raising of Jairus' twelve-year-old daughter, who had died while Jesus was on His way to her.

Yet these three episodes, seemingly distinct at first glance, are united and brought together by one single statement: "Do not be afraid; just believe" (Luke 8:50).

This is one story about faith encountering human hopelessness; about the power of God, which first reaches out to the one who believes; and about the Word of God proclaiming resurrection even when hope itself has died!

Saint Cyril of Alexandria draws our attention to the fact that, in this event, Jesus is asked to do what the human person is no longer capable of doing. Jairus, as the leader of a community of believers, understands very well that no human being can save his child. The woman suffering from haemorrhages has spent all her possessions on physicians, yet no one has been able to heal her. Even those who were mourning the dead child mocked the Saviour when He told them, "Do not weep!"

Yet the very heart of these events lies in the fact that the One who hastens to meet the human person is not a rescuer, a physician, or an ordinary human teacher. The Lord Himself, the Life-Giver, has come to meet us! He heals the sick woman and raises the dead girl precisely because He Himself is Life and Resurrection. That is why Saint Cyril says: "Only the supreme divine nature can give life to the dead" (Homily 44 on the Gospel of Luke).

Let us, however, take note of another very important detail. As Christ makes His way through the crowd, the Evangelist seems to contrast two different ways in which a person in need approaches Jesus. We hear that the crowd is pressing in around Him. When the Saviour stops and begins asking who has touched Him, Peter does not understand the question and says: "Master, the crowds are surrounding You and pressing in on You!" (Luke 8:45).

But the Lord is speaking about an entirely different kind of touch. He is not referring to physical contact or the pressure of the crowd, but to a spiritual touch through faith, which makes it possible for the fullness of God's power to be poured out upon that person. He says: "Someone touched Me; for I noticed that power had gone out from Me" (Luke 8:46).

In the entire crowd, there was only one person who truly believed! She touched only the fringe of the Saviour's garment but, in reality, her faith made it possible for the Lord Himself to touch the very depths of her affliction, the very condition that rendered her ritually unclean and excluded her from the worshipping community of the synagogue.

"Daughter, your faith has made you whole; go in peace" (Luke 8:48). These words about salvation and peace, about resurrection and life, are addressed to each one of us today. Today, and especially in this Divine Liturgy, the Lord is in our midst. Perhaps even now we press upon Him with our petitions and needs, perhaps we crowd around Him during various large-scale church celebrations and gatherings.

Today, just as that woman suffering from haemorrhages once did, we too can touch the fringe of Jesus' garment through the liturgical symbols and sacred actions of our divine services. But Jesus is searching among us for a person of genuine faith: someone who will invite Him into their life, someone who, like Jairus, will reveal before Him the full depth of their pain, and who, like that believing woman, will reach out to Him in faith.

Only the person who believes and opens before Jesus not merely the doors of their home or their hidden desires, but their very heart of faith, inviting Him to touch the depths of their entire being — soul, spirit, and body — through the power and the grace of the Holy Spirit, can truly encounter Him. Faith is not simply some religious conviction of ours. It is our complete openness and trust in the touch of the One who has authority over life and death.

Human hopelessness mocks us and says: "It is all over." But Christ says to you and to me: "Child, arise!" (Luke 8, 54)

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ!

Today we celebrate the feast of Saint Michael the Archangel and all the bodiless heavenly powers. He, the commander of the heavenly hosts, is the heavenly patron of the city of Kyiv! Angels and archangels, our heavenly patrons and protectors, whom Sacred Scripture calls God's messengers are not merely bearers of "information". They are not some kind of "messengers" in the sense of today's social media communication networks. They are bearers of divine power, witnesses to God's intervention in the history of humanity and in the life of each individual person. It is precisely this witness that reveals their true identity.

When, on February 24, 2022, Russian forces advanced towards Kyiv within a matter of hours, many people told me that they had experienced the presence of Saint Michael above us, accompanied by the entire heavenly army, which had come to the aid of Ukraine's defenders! The very fact that we are here among you today, that I am alive and standing here among you, is a testimony to the power of God, brought to us by the heavenly hosts precisely at the moment when human efforts seemed destined for defeat.

Today, on this very day and on this great feast, the Lord is sending His Michael to the Ukrainian Catholic Church in Canada, and particularly to the Archeparchy of Winnipeg! An ancient Christian tradition calls the bishop the angel of his Church. He stands in prayer before the face of God, together with all the choirs of angels, interceding for his people.

Through the power and action of the Holy Spirit, he is the chief herald of God's Word and the minister of the Holy Mysteries of Christ's Church, through which the power of Life and Resurrection is bestowed upon people in our own time. He is the chief evangelizer and catechist, a teacher of Christian piety and prayer, and a witness to faith, hope, and love.

Yet the ministry of the Metropolitan of our Church in Canada has its own particular characteristics. The Metropolitan is a servant of communion! He is a servant and builder of Christ's unity: the unity of the human person with God, the unity among our eparchies and parishes throughout Canada, and the unity of our Church in this blessed country with our Mother Church in Ukraine. This communion is lived out in unity with Peter in our time, His Holiness Pope Leo.

Dear Metropolitan Michael!

When our Synod was discerning God's will and asking whom He wished to appoint as the Angel of our Metropolitan See in Canada, as a servant of universal communion and a teacher of faith in God for our people, He pointed to you!

He pointed to His beloved Michael, whose heart the Holy Spirit has been warming and shaping over so many years: through the highest levels of theological studies in Rome, through your ministry at the Ukrainien Catholic University in Lviv, and through all the paths of spiritual experiences across the vast land of Canada. And so, today, our entire Church rejoices with you and sings: Axios! You are worthy!

I would also like to express special words of gratitude for many years of dedicated service to His Excellence Metropolitan Lawrence Huculak. Dear Metropolitan Lawrence, your name has been inscribed in golden letters in the history of our Church. Please accept from all of us our profound respect and gratitude. May the Lord bless you with good health and renew your strength, granting you many more years of service to our Church and our people!

Today we pray to the Lord: "You make Your angels spirits, and Your ministers a flaming fire" (Psalm 103 (104):4)! Bless our Church in Canada. Take Metropolitan Michael under Your protection and endow him with the heavenly power of the grace of the Holy Spirit! Lord, bring the war in Ukraine to an end! Send Your Archangel Michael, together with all the heavenly hosts, to defend Your faithful people, our armed forces, and our Church! All you holy martyrs, pray to God for us! Most Holy Mother of God, save us!

Rt. Rev. Joe Ostopowich Elected Eparchial Administrator of the Eparchy of New Westminster

With the installation of Bishop Michael Kwiatkowski as Archbishop of Winnipeg and Metropolitan of the Ukrainian Catholic Church in Canada on November 8, 2026, the Eparchy of New Westminster is now awaiting the appointment of its next Eparchial Bishop.

In accordance with the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches, the College of Consultors of our Eparchy have met and elected Rev. Joe Ostopowich as Eparchial Administrator. Fr. Joe will administer the Eparchy until a new Bishop is appointed and enthroned.

We give thanks to God for Metropolitan Michael's years of pastoral care among us and assure him of our prayers as he begins his new ministry in service of the whole Ukrainian Catholic Church in Canada.

What happens next:

The new Bishop for our Eparchy will be chosen through the process of our Church: the Synod of Bishops of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church proposes candidates, and the appointment is made by the Holy Father. Until then, the Eparchial Administrator oversees the life of the Eparchy, and the parishes continue their ordinary liturgical and pastoral life. The timing of the appointment is not yet known, so this is a season of prayerful and trusting waiting for the whole Eparchy.

A prayer for a new bishop

Fr. Joe asks all clergy and religious to add the following petitions to the ektenia at every Divine Liturgy:

May our Lord grant our Eparchy not only a bishop to govern, but a spiritual and pastoral father who will love his people, serve with humility, teach with wisdom, and lead souls to Christ. O Lord, hear our prayer and have mercy!

We also pray for all the clergy, monastics, religious, and faithful of our Eparchy, that during this time of prayerful waiting our Lord may strengthen us in faith, continue to unite us in love, and grant us patience and trust in His Divine Providence. O Lord, hear our prayer and have mercy!

The faithful are warmly encouraged to include this intention in their personal and family prayers as well.

Visiting the parishes

Fr. Joe hopes to attend as many parish feast days (praznyky) as possible during his time as Administrator. We invite the faithful of our parishes to welcome him with prayer and joy.

Please pray for Fr. Joe

Fr. Joe asks the clergy and faithful to remember him in prayer, that God would grant him wisdom and guidance in fulfilling the duties of Eparchial Administrator. He relies on the prayers and support of the whole Eparchy and thanks everyone for their friendship.

Отця Джо Остоповича обрано Єпархіальним адміністратором Нью-Вестмінстерської єпархії

Після інтронізації владики Михаїла Квятковського на Архиєпископа Вінніпезького і Митрополита Української Католицької Церкви в Канаді, яка відбулася 8 листопада 2026 року, Нью-Вестмінстерська єпархія очікує на призначення нового єпархіального єпископа.

Відповідно до Кодексу канонів Східних Церков, Колегія консульторів нашої єпархії зібралася й обрала Єпархіальним адміністратором о. Джо Остоповича. Отець Джо керуватиме єпархією до призначення та інтронізації нового владики.

Дякуємо Господеві за роки пастирського служіння митрополита Михаїла серед нас і запевняємо його в наших молитвах на початку нового служіння всій Українській Католицькій Церкві в Канаді.

Що далі

Нового єпископа для нашої єпархії буде обрано згідно з порядком нашої Церкви: Синод Єпископів Української Греко-Католицької Церкви пропонує кандидатів, а призначення здійснює Святіший Отець. До того часу Єпархіальний адміністратор опікується життям єпархії, а парафії продовжують звичне літургійне та душпастирське життя. Час призначення поки невідомий, тож для всієї єпархії настає пора молитовного й довірливого очікування.

Молитва за нового єпископа

Отець Джо просить усе духовенство та богопосвячених осіб додавати до єктенії на кожній Божественній Літургії такі прохання:

Нехай Господь дарує нашій єпархії не лише єпископа-управителя, а й духовного та пастирського отця, який любитиме свій народ, служитиме зі смиренням, навчатиме з мудрістю і вестиме душі до Христа. Господи, почуй молитву нашу і помилуй!

Молимося також за все духовенство, чернецтво та вірних нашої єпархії, щоб у цей час молитовного очікування Господь наш зміцнив нас у вірі, й надалі єднав нас у любові, а також дарував нам терпеливість і довіру до Його Божественного Провидіння. Господи, почуй молитву нашу і помилуй!

Заохочуємо також усіх вірних додати цей намір до особистої та родинної молитви.

Відвідини парафій

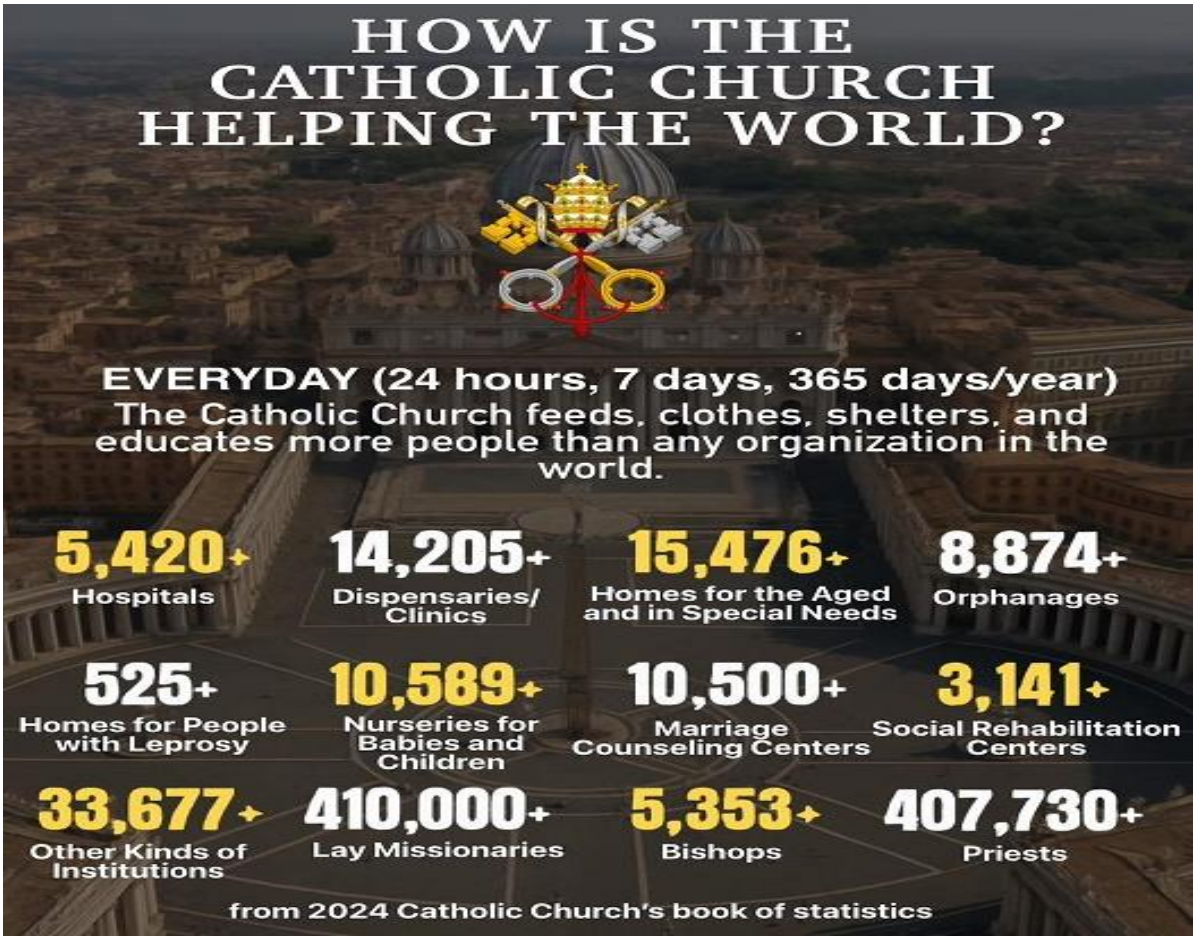

Отець Джо бажає взяти участь у якомога більшій кількості храмових празників протягом свого служіння адміністратора. Запрошуємо вірних наших парафій прийняти його з молитвою та радістю.

Помолімося за отця Джо

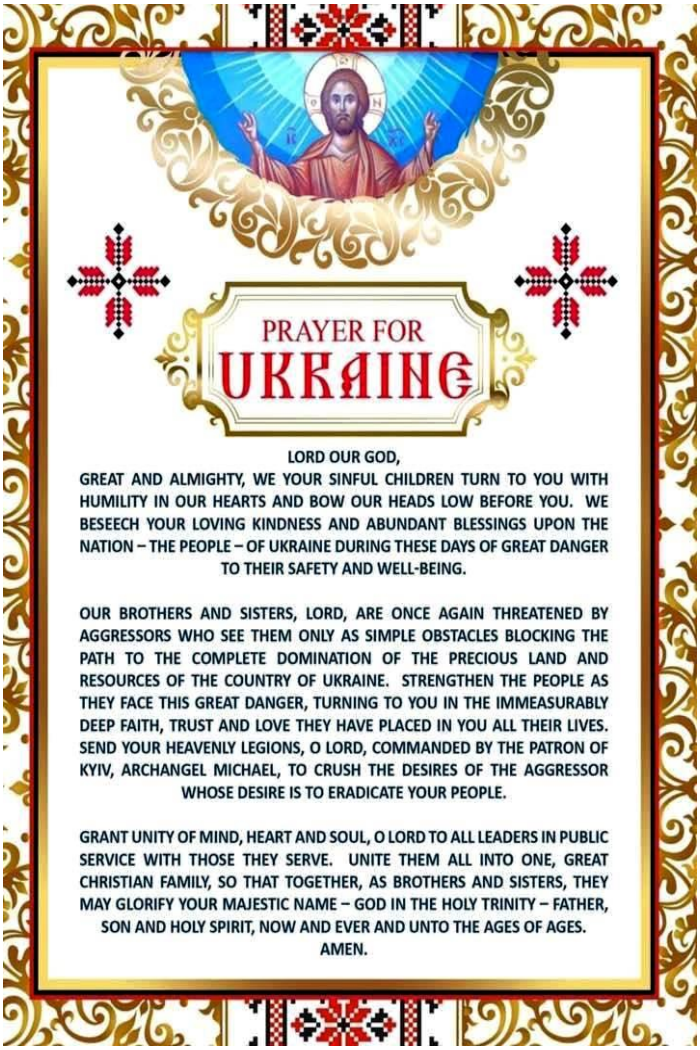

Отець Джо просить духовенство і вірних пам'ятати про нього в молитві, щоб Господь дарував йому мудрість і провід у виконанні обов'язків Єпархіального адміністратора. Він покладається на молитви й підтримку всієї єпархії та дякує всім за дружбу.
